

Wayland Oct 9th,

Glad to hear you are back again to the old quarters, endeared to you by being your home for so many years. Long may you abide there in peace and contentment.

I know what a wrench it is to the heart to have one's home broken up.

I expect to have a room in Boston this winter, in Groton St. near Dover St.

I do not like the city, but I see nothing better to do with myself, under the circumstances,

Yrs cordially,

L. Maria Child.
